

Statements vs Questions: Worksheets, Quiz No. 01

Levels of difficulty: Easy / Beginner / Novice / Std. Grade 2 to 5

Statement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Statements are sentences that express facts, ideas or opinions. ● It says something is true. ● It ends with a period. (.) Examples: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. This machine is easy. 2. Mom is in the kitchen. 3. Riya plays piano.
Question	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A question is an asking sentence. ● It is a sentence that asks something. ● It ends with a question mark. (?) Questions are also known as interrogative sentences. Examples: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Is this machine easy? 2. Is mom in the kitchen? 3. Does Riya play piano?

Read the following sentences and mark whether the sentence is a statement or question.

SN.		Statement	Question
1	Did you like the movie?		✓
2	How did you like the movie?
3	This book is mine.	✓
4	How is your mother?
5	Does he work at the airport?
6	Who did this?
7	These sunglasses are too big.
8	When are you going?
9	Which class are you in this year?
10	Is this your cap?
11	The working hours of our school library are from 10.00 AM. to 6.00 PM.
12	He works at the nearby grocery store.
13	Who's she?
14	We will visit the museum tomorrow.
15	I have a puppy.
16	They had a great time at school.
17	Tokyo is the capital of Japan.
18	They play cricket every Sunday at the club.
19	Mushroom is cultivated throughout the year.
20	Whose bag is this?

To solve this free online test and many more visit
<https://english.lifeeasy.org>
or scan this QR code.

LIFEEASY ENGLISH

English for all...

Solve this worksheet online by visiting following URL or scanning the adjacent QR Code:

<https://english.lifeeasy.org/english-sentences/statements-vs-questions-01.html>

